

REPORT OF THE REMUNERATION COMMITTEE

Members: MH Ahmed (chairman), JA Copelyn and NB Jappie.

All the members of the committee are non-executive directors and two are independent. In line with the recommendations of King IV the chief executive officer attends the meetings of the committee at the request of the committee, but recuses himself from the meeting before any decisions are made.

The committee met two (2) times during the year under review on each of 30 May 2017 and 22 November 2017. The meetings were attended by all committee members. It has met once subsequent to the reporting date on 29 May 2018.

The non-binding advisory vote in respect of the remuneration report, as included in the integrated annual report for the 2017 financial year, was tabled at the annual general meeting of the Company and passed by the requisite majority. In the event that the non-binding advisory votes in respect of the Company's remuneration implementation report or its remuneration policy, as summarised in this report, are voted against by 25% or more of votes cast at the annual general meeting, the board will seek to engage directly with the disapproving shareholders in order to contemplate the reasons for dissent and implement corrective action, if it deems fit.

This committee is primarily responsible for overseeing the remuneration and incentives of the executive directors and executive management. It takes cognisance of best remuneration practices in order to ensure that such total remuneration is fair and reasonable to both the employee and the Company. Where required, the committee may utilise the services of independent remuneration consultants to assist in providing guidance on the remuneration for executive management. The Group's remuneration philosophy strives to reward employees in a fair and responsible way which ensures a culture of high performance to deliver returns to shareholders through employees who are motivated, engaged and committed. This philosophy's intended consequence is to attract, retain and develop employees with scarce and critical skills who contribute to sustained business growth and are aligned to the strategic and operational requirements of the business.

The functions and mandates of the remuneration committee include:

- making recommendations to the board on directors' fees and the remuneration and service conditions of Company executives, including the chief executive officer;
- providing a channel of communication between the board and management on remuneration matters;

- reviewing the Group's remuneration policies and practices and proposals to change these and to make recommendations in this regard to the board;
- reviewing and approving the terms and conditions of any executive employment contracts, taking into account information from comparable companies; and
- reviewing and approving any disclosures in the integrated annual report or elsewhere on remuneration policies or directors' remuneration.

REMUNERATION POLICY

Non-executive directors can earn up to a maximum of R46 000 by serving on the committees responsible to the board of directors.
